CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.

The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between the bidders before the ensuing lot is sold, the lot in dispute to be put up again. The Auctioneer reserves to himself the right to refuse any bidding he pleases.

SECOND.

No advance less than 1s.; above £1, 2s.; above £3, 5s.; and above 5 guineas, half-a-guinea will be deemed the advance.

THIRD.

The full purchase-money for each lot shall be paid at the fall of the hammer (if required); and shall be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the respective purchasers, and shall be removed from the place of sale immediately after the auction at the purchaser's expense, and taken, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults, defects, and errors of description, the Auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any lot. The contract of sale is to be deemed in all cases as made with the Auctioneers, and not with the owner of the goods, and payment is to be made to the Auctioneers, or their clerk, only.

FOURTH.

No lot or lots can be removed until paid for, and a delivery order given to the purchaser, nor shall any person be allowed to retract his or her bidding, but give up his or her name and residence if required.

FIFTH.

If any person purchase more than one lot, it shall be deemed one entire purchase, and no lot, or portion of a lot, can be delivered to any purchaser before the purchase-money be paid for all his lots.

SIXTH.

If any purchaser shall fail to comply with the above conditions or any of them, the Auctioneers shall be at liberty either to recover in full the amount of the lot or lots bought by such purchaser, or to re-sell any lot or lots bought by such purchaser, either by public or private sale; and the full amount of the purchase-money at the present sale, or the deficiency (if any) arising from such second sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at the present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.
